

The "DO NOT CALL" list must stay in place as it is. I have my family's uninterrupted evenings back as well as family who are seniors not being taken advantage of by unscrupulous telemarketers. If there is something I want, I will call. We do not need this unnecessary intrusion on our lives. Thank you for your attention!